

Tuesday February 3, 2009

(Rev. Peter K. Ng'ang'a, Rector, Baraka Anglican Church-Austin)

Let us pray.

Eternal God, your everlasting mercy rises new every morning.

Your faithfulness and generous love supplies us with the fruits of the earth in their seasons.

You are the source of all wisdom and justice.

You are God of might and unfailing power.

You give vigor to the weary and fresh hope to the exhausted.

We acknowledge your Lordship.

Grant that trusting in Your Lordship, this 81st Legislative Session of the State of Texas shall, this day be conducted through the knowledge that comes from You.

May all the deliberations be conducted with wisdom, sensitivity and a spirit of discernment.

May all difficult issues be tackled with truth and love, all for the good governance of the State, unity of its citizens and for the glory of Your name.

AMEN.